

Overview of the EYFS Year and Possible Learning Themes:

Marvellous Me		What a Wonderful World		Oh, the places we'll go
Autumn 1 Books Nursery: We Are Here – Oliver Jeffers We are Family – Patricia Hegarty Reception: Here We Are – Oliver Jeffers Incredible YOU – Rhys Brisenden and Nathan Reed	Autumn 2 Books Nursery: Lost and Found – Oliver Jeffers One Snowy Night – Nick Butterworth Reception: Donovan's Big Day – Leslea Newman Stickman – Julia Donaldson	Spring 1 Books Nursery: Supertato Veggies Assembly - Sue Hendra and Paul Linnet Handa's Surprise – Eileen Browne Reception: The Very Hungry Caterpillar – Eric Carle The Little Red Hen	Spring 2 Books Nursery: Zog and the Flying Doctors – Julia Donaldson A Superhero Like You – Dr Raj Reception: A Superhero Like You – Dr Raj Mog and the Vet – Judith Kerr	Summer 1 Books Nursery: What the Ladybird Heard – Julia Donaldson The Rainbow Fish - Marcus Pfister Reception: The First Hippo on the Moon – David Walliams My World, Your World – Melanie Walsh	Summer 2 Books Fairy tales
Possible topics:
Settling In Ourselves Family Friendship and Community Space Our World	Arctic Animals Friendship Winter Geography Artic Nocturnal Animals Seasons Feeling Celebrations and Festivals	Healthy eating Growing and harvesting Different cultures Different fruits and vegetables.	People who help us Jobs What do I want to be when I grow up Doing what you want to do Having a go at different things People who help us jobs	Mini beasts What's in the garden On the farm Summer and growing Under the sea Beach Sharing Turn taking Season/Summer Holidays and places	Imagination Characters Story layouts Creativity

We chose our books depending on the cohort of children, our demographic and what we know the children enjoy. We go very much with what the children enjoy but have some possible topics we may cover over the year.